Six Elements of Classical Education School Website Audit

School: Cambridge School

School Website: <https://cambridgeclassical.org/>

Disclaimer

This audit was performed using artificial intelligence tools to evaluate the presence and strength of classical education principles on school websites. Results are automated, probabilistic in nature, and should be considered indicative rather than definitive. See the full disclaimer in the Appendix more details.

ACCS Member School

Any school that belongs to the Association of Classical Christian Schools ACCS or the Society for Classical Learning SCL is, by definition, recognized as a classical school because both organizations require adherence to the six essential elements defined by the Humanitas Institute. However, a school's website may not clearly reflect its conformity to one or more elements. In such cases, the school may still receive a "Somewhat Classical" rating for those elements. Schools can update their website content at any time to achieve a "Classical" rating for a given element.

Classicality Audit Report

Executive Summary - School: Berean Christian Academy (Katy, TX) - Website audited: <https://bereanchristianacademy.org>

- Overall classification: CLASSICAL - Highlights: The school publicly and repeatedly affirms "Truth, Goodness, and Beauty," a Christ-centered worldview, and the seven liberal arts with the Trivium (Grammar–Logic–Rhetoric), supported by Great Books, Latin, formal logic and debate, Harkness discussions, Senior Thesis, hymn studies, catechism, and scripture memory. These align strongly with the keyword indicators and six-element framework in Six Essential Elements of a Classical School and the lexicon in classicality_lexicon.v2.2.txt . - Category ratings: - Religious & Metaphysical Foundations: CLASSICAL - School Purpose & Goal: CLASSICAL - Curriculum: CLASSICAL - Pedagogy: CLASSICAL - Faculty: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL - Parents & Community: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL Method note: This audit follows the mandatory keyword-based scoring process dictated by the Six Essential Elements framework, using its Positive/Negative keyword indicators across the six categories, with counts and coverage estimates reported below .

School Evidence Snapshot (verbatim phrases found) - Mission and identity: "Christ-centered worldview," "Truth, Goodness, and Beauty," "classical Christian school," "partnership between faculty and parents" . - Trivium and liberal arts: "seven liberal arts," "Grammar, Logic, and Rhetoric," "Latin," "Rhetoric I/II," "Senior Thesis," "Great Books," "original ancient texts," "theology, philosophy" . - Dialectic/rhetoric pedagogy: "formal logic and debate," "Harkness Table conversation" (Socratic-style) . - Liturgical/memory practices: "Hymn studies, Catechism, and scripture memory are built into each day," ongoing Bible study; apologetics . - Nature and wonder: "Weekly nature studies develop the student's curiosity and observation skills" .

Framework and Lexicon Used - Six Essential Elements of a Classical School: Positive/Negative keyword indicators used to classify each category and compute hit counts and coverage . - Classicality lexicon (category-aligned keyword lists such as truth/goodness/beauty, trivium/quadrivium, great books, Latin, Socratic/Harkness, chanting/recitation, catechesis, partnership with parents) .

CATEGORY 1: RELIGIOUS AND METAPHYSICAL FOUNDATIONS - Keywords found (from school site): - Positive matches: "Christ-centered worldview," "Truth, Goodness, and Beauty," "Bible," "theology," "apologetics," "Hymn studies," "Catechism," "scripture memory," "virtue" . - Comparison to Six Elements Positive/Negative indicators: - Strong alignment with: transcendental moral realism (truth, goodness, beauty); grounded in theology (Bible, theology, apologetics); liturgical/communal practices (hymns, catechesis, daily scripture memory) . - No negative indicators (e.g., values-neutral, relativism) observed. - Quantitative estimate: - Positive hits: +10 - Negative hits: -0 - Percent positive: 100% - Coverage: 90% (all three sub-areas evidenced: moral realism, theology, liturgical/communal) - Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 2: SCHOOL PURPOSE AND GOAL - Keywords found (from school site): - Positive matches: "virtue development," "wisdom" (students "impart wisdom" in rhetoric), repeated "truth, goodness, beauty," service/leadership/mentorships pointing to formation beyond information . - Comparison to Six Elements Positive/Negative indicators: - Aligns with cultivation of wisdom/virtue and pursuit of truth/goodness/beauty; emphasis on formation through service and mentorships; no focus on “college/career readiness” or purely pragmatic outcomes detected in public-facing language . - Quantitative estimate: - Positive hits: +6 - Negative hits: -0 - Percent positive: 100% - Coverage: 70% (clear purpose language present; could be even stronger with explicit “formation over information” statements) - Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 3: SCHOOL CURRICULUM - Keywords found (from school site): - Positive matches: “seven liberal arts,” “Grammar, Logic, and Rhetoric,” “Latin III–VI,” “Great Books,” “original ancient texts,” “Rhetoric I & II,” “Senior Thesis,” “Theology,” “Philosophy,” “Ancient/Medieval/Modern History” (history, not “social studies”), math through Calculus, sciences including Astronomy (quadrivial echo) . - Additional positives: “chronologically” studied Bible; composers/art integrated with the historical timeline (cultural transmission) . - Potential negatives: brief “Singapore Math,” “rigor,” and PISA references (weak indicators toward “efficiency/measurable outcomes”) ; these do not dominate. - Comparison to Six Elements Positive/Negative indicators: - Strong alignment with Seven Liberal Arts, Great Books/primary texts, and an integrated, wonder-fostering curriculum; no “social studies” replacement nor STEM-first marketing observed . - Quantitative estimate: - Positive hits: +16 - Negative hits: -1 - Percent positive: 94% - Coverage: 95% (Trivium/Quadrivium signals, Great Books, integrated humanities/sciences, rhetoric thesis) - Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 4: SCHOOL PEDAGOGY OR TEACHING METHODS - Keywords found (from school site): - Positive matches: “Harkness Table conversation,” “formal logic and debate,” “Senior Thesis” (oration/rhetoric), “Hymn studies,” “Catechism,” “scripture memory,” “Weekly nature studies” (wonder/attention) . - “Harkness” is explicitly listed in the Six Elements’ Socratic/Dialectic signals set (Harkness discussion) . - Comparison to Six Elements Positive/Negative indicators: - Upper school dialectic/rhetoric via Harkness, debate, thesis; lower school memory work via hymns/catechism/scripture; cultivation of wonder via nature studies. No “project-based dominant”/constructivist marketing observed . - Quantitative estimate: - Positive hits: +9 - Negative hits: -0 - Percent positive: 100% - Coverage: 85% (clear memory work and upper-school dialectic/rhetoric; less explicit “scholé/restful” language) - Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 5: SCHOOL FACULTY - Keywords found (from school site): - Positive matches: “mentorships” (student mentorships as a school-structured practice) . - Neutral: “faculty are all degreed” (credential-focused statement is not a classical negative; just neutral) . - Comparison to Six Elements Positive/Negative indicators: - Some signal toward mentoring; however, public pages do not strongly present “teachers as models of virtue,” “faculty of friends,” or a “portrait of a teacher/student” as such . - Quantitative estimate: - Positive hits: +1 - Negative hits: -0 - Percent positive: 100% (of observed signals) - Coverage: 30% (light public articulation of faculty-as-living-curriculum) - Rating: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 6: SCHOOL PARENTS AND COMMUNITY - Keywords found (from school site): - Positive matches: “Berean operates as a partnership between faculty and parents” (explicit parent partnership) . - Comparison to Six Elements Positive/Negative indicators: - Strong parent partnership language; did not find robust evidence (from public pages in this crawl) of parent formation/book clubs or “open campus” statements; no negative “consumer” language observed . - Quantitative estimate: - Positive hits: +1 - Negative hits: -0 - Percent positive: 100% (of observed signals) - Coverage: 40% (clear partnership; more could be shown around parent formation) - Rating: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL

Aggregate Assessment - Overall Rating: CLASSICAL - Rationale: Four of six categories score CLASSICAL with strong, repeated keyword alignment (TGB; theology and liturgical practices; Trivium with Latin, logic, rhetoric and Senior Thesis; Harkness debate and memory work). Faculty and Parent/Community categories are positively trending but less fully articulated on public pages in this crawl, lowering coverage rather than positivity, which keeps the overall profile firmly CLASSICAL given the strength and breadth in the other categories .

Keyword Framework References - Positive/Negative keyword indicators for all six categories (used for scoring): Six Essential Elements of a Classical School . - Category-aligned lexicon used to tally matches (truth/- goodness/beauty, trivium/quadrivium, great books, Latin, catechesis, hymnody, Socratic/Harkness, memory/chanting, parent partnership, etc.): classicality_lexicon.v2.2.txt .

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE DISCLAIMER

This audit was conducted using artificial intelligence tools (including large language models and automated web-analysis scripts) to evaluate the extent to which school websites reflect or incorporate recognized principles of classical education (e.g., the trivium, emphasis on truth/beauty/goodness, integration of great books, Latin/classical languages, Socratic method, rigorous academics, moral/character formation, etc.).

Important Limitations and Caveats

1. Automated Nature: The analysis relies on AI interpretation of publicly-accessible school website content as of the date of the audit. It does not involve direct contact with schools, review of internal documents, classroom observation, or verification of curriculum implementation beyond what is stated or implied on the website.
2. Probabilistic Results: Scores and assessments are probabilistic and reflect the AI's best interpretation of available text and site structure. They are not infallible and may miss nuance, context, or recent changes not yet reflected online.
3. Subjectivity of Classical Education: "Classical Education" encompasses a range of traditions and interpretations (e.g., Dorothy Sayers' trivium model, Classical Christian Education, Great Books programs, etc.). The Humanitas Institute Audit of the Six Elements of Classical Education uses a broad, consensus-based framework derived from prominent classical education organizations and thought leaders. Reasonable people may disagree on weighting or inclusion of specific criteria.
4. No Official Endorsement or Certification: Results do not constitute official endorsement, accreditation, or certification by any classical education organization. They are provided for informational and research purposes only.
5. Potential for Error: Websites may be incomplete, poorly worded, or temporarily inaccurate. Conversely, sophisticated marketing language may create false positives. Human review by parents, educators, or classical education experts is strongly recommended before drawing final conclusions about any school.
6. Data Privacy and Ethics: Only publicly available information was analyzed. No attempts were made to access password-protected areas or collect personal data.
7. No Liability: The authors, developers, and distributors of this audit assume no liability for decisions made on the basis of these results. Users are solely responsible for their own due diligence.
