Artificial Intelligence Disclaimer

This audit was performed using artificial intelligence tools to evaluate the presence and strength of classical education principles on school websites. Results are automated, probabilistic in nature, and should be considered indicative rather than definitive. See the full disclaimer in the Appendix more details.

Overall Classification: CLASSICALAbington Christian Academy — Classicality Audit

Executive Summary TL;DR - Overall classification: CLASSICAL - Why: The school's public materials repeatedly affirm a Christian classical vision centered on truth, goodness, and beauty; theology as the integrating "logos" across subjects; a liberal arts curriculum with Latin, Great Books, history (not "social studies"), and a memory-rich grammar-stage pedagogy with singing/chanting/recitation. These directly match the Six Essential Elements lexicon's positive indicators (truth/goodness/beauty; sacred scripture; logos; trivium; Great Books; recitation/chant) and avoid the negative indicators (e.g., "college and career readiness," "project-based learning" dominance). - Watchouts: Fewer explicit statements on faculty formation (portrait of a teacher, mentorship) and on parent partnership/parent formation. Strengthening these would round out an otherwise strong classical profile.

How to read this report - Each category below shows: (1) keywords we found on the school's site, (2) how they map to the classical lexicon from Six Essential Elements, (3) a positive/negative hit count and coverage estimate, and (4) a category rating. - Lexicon and scoring framework: Six Essential Elements of a Classical School and the provided classicality lexicon (positive and negative keyword indicators).

CATEGORY 1: Religious and Metaphysical Foundations 1) Evidence/keywords found in school materials - "We are a place where students can discover what is true, good, and beautiful."; "Biblical worldview" (homepage) - "made in God's image ... the Bible ... God's gift of revelation" (Language Focused) - "logos ... the Word ... Jesus Christ ... central organizing principle of all our curriculum ... all subjects find their meaning in Christ" (Classical Distinctions) - Explicit Statement of Faith (Trinity; authority of Scripture) - "Christian faith is fundamental to both what is taught, and how it is taught" (In the Classroom)

2) Mapping to Six Elements lexicon

- Positive matches: truth/goodness/beauty; sacred scripture/Bible; logos; Christ-centered integration; Christian worldview (Religious & Metaphysical positives).
- Liturgical/communal practice terms (chapel, liturgy, daily prayer) were not explicit.

3) Quantitative estimate

- Hits: +6/-0 (truth/goodness/beauty; Bible; logos; Christ-centered; Christian worldview; imago Dei implication)
- Percent positive: 100%
- Percent coverage: 67% (2 of 3 sub-areas strongly evidenced: transcendental moral realism and theological grounding; liturgical/communal practice not evidenced)

4) Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 2: School Purpose and Goal 1) Evidence/keywords found - "more than just training people to function at a particular job" (rejects utilitarian job-prep focus) - "love wisdom, virtuous conduct, and the joy of learning" (Educational Philosophy) - "teach our students to love what is beautiful, what is wise, and what is virtuous" (Great Books for children) - "liberal arts ... liberated persons ... well-ordered lives" - Homepage: "discover what is true, good, and beautiful"

2) Mapping to lexicon

- Positive matches: wisdom, virtue, love of learning, truth/goodness/beauty, liberal education; formation over information (Purpose & Goal positives).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Hits: +7/-0
- Percent positive: 100%
- Percent coverage: 100% (all three aims evidenced: cultivate wisdom/virtue; pursue truth/goodness/beauty; formation not mere information)

4) Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 3: Curriculum 1) Evidence/keywords found - Trivium and liberal arts: “phonics ... grammar ... Latin ... logical thinking ... precise writing ... arithmetic, geometry, higher mathematics, and the sciences ... music, art” - Grammar & Latin vocabulary emphasized; memory work across disciplines (Grammar Stage; Memory & Recitation) - Great Books: “literature best described as The Great Books for children” - History is named “History” (not “Social Studies”) in the program list - Integration: “all knowledge is integrated ... logos ... all subjects exist harmoniously ... Christ ... central organizing principle”

2) Mapping to lexicon

- Positive matches: liberal arts, trivium terms (grammar/logic/rhetoric implied via grammar/logic/precise writing), Latin, Great Books, history, integration via logos (Curriculum positives).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Hits: +10/-0
- Percent positive: 100%
- Percent coverage: 75% (Trivium/Quadrivium, Great Books, Integration are clear; “wonder” language is less explicit)

4) Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 4: Pedagogy / Teaching Methods 1) Evidence/keywords found - Grammar□stage pedagogy: “memorize ... recite ... poetry, Bible, math and grammar rules ... students sing, chant, rhyme” (Memory & Recitation; In the Classroom) - Dorothy Sayers’ “Poll Parrot Stage” (Grammar Stage page) emphasizes repetition and memory work, singing/chanting/recitation

2) Mapping to lexicon

- Positive matches: recitation, chanting, singing, memory work; strong alignment for K–6 pedagogy (Pedagogy positives).
- No explicit “Socratic”/seminar claims; however, the site appears focused on PK–6/Grammar Stage, which is not penalized per guidance (upper□school Socratic begins later).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Hits: +5/-0
- Percent positive: 100%
- Percent coverage: 67% of relevant K–8 items (strong lower□school memory/chant; no explicit “restful learning/scholé” statement; upper□school Socratic/rhetoric not applicable here)

4) Rating: CLASSICAL (for the school’s grade band)

CATEGORY 5: Faculty 1) Evidence/keywords found - “community of learners where faculty are free to work as a team” (collegiality) - “family spirit” on homepage (culture signaling)

2) Mapping to lexicon

- Partial positive alignment with “mentorship and collegiality/faculty of friends” language; however, the site does not (in the crawl) articulate a portrait/profile of a teacher or explicit “teachers as models of virtue” statements (Faculty positives).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Hits: +2/-0
- Percent positive: 100%
- Percent coverage: 25% (collegial culture suggested; little else explicit on faculty formation/mentorship)

4) Rating: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 6: Parents and Community 1) Evidence/keywords found - Hospitality/invitation cues: “Schedule a Visit,” “Request Info,” and community event (“Pie for Breakfast”) suggest a welcoming community culture - “family spirit” reference on homepage (community ethos)

2) Mapping to lexicon

- While these suggest hospitality, the materials we crawled do not explicitly use parent-partnership/co-educator language or parent-formation programming the lexicon calls out (Parents & Community positives).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Hits: +1/-0 (hospitality/community)
- Percent positive: 100%
- Percent coverage: 33% (some community signals; little explicit “partnership with parents” or “parent formation” detail)

4) Rating: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL

Aggregate Rating: CLASSICAL - Strengths aligned with classical essentials: explicit transcendental aims (true/good/beautiful) and theological integration (logos/Christ-centered); liberal-arts/trivium content with Latin and Great Books; robust grammar-stage pedagogy of recitation/chant/singing and Bible-anchored memory work (matching Six Elements keyword lists). - Growth areas: publish explicit statements on faculty as mentors/models of virtue and on structured parent partnership/parent formation to strengthen Categories 5 and 6 (per Six Elements’ Faculty and Parents & Community indicators).

Note on crawl anomalies - Several spammy blog artifacts (e.g., “casino” pages) appeared in the crawl; these are irrelevant to school mission and were excluded from scoring.

Category Metrics Summary - Religious & Metaphysical Foundations: CLASSICAL | +6/-0 | 100% positive | 67% coverage - Purpose & Goal: CLASSICAL | +7/-0 | 100% positive | 100% coverage - Curriculum: CLASSICAL | +10/-0 | 100% positive | 75% coverage - Pedagogy: CLASSICAL | +5/-0 | 100% positive | 67% coverage - Faculty: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL | +2/-0 | 100% positive | 25% coverage - Parents & Community: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL | +1/-0 | 100% positive | 33% coverage

Key Evidence Excerpts (illustrative) - “We are a place where students can discover what is true, good, and beautiful.” - “Christian faith is fundamental to both what is taught, and how it is taught.” - “In the beginning was the Word (logos) ... the ‘logos’ ... is Jesus Christ ... central organizing principle of all our curriculum.” - “Great Books for children ... teach our students to love what is beautiful, what is wise, and what is virtuous.” - “Students ... memorize and recite ... poetry ... Bible ... sing, chant, rhyme.”

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE DISCLAIMER

This audit was conducted using artificial intelligence tools (including large language models and automated web-analysis scripts) to evaluate the extent to which school websites reflect or incorporate recognized principles of classical education (e.g., the trivium, emphasis on truth/beauty/goodness, integration of great books, Latin/classical languages, Socratic method, rigorous academics, moral/character formation, etc.).

Important Limitations and Caveats

1. Automated Nature: The analysis relies on AI interpretation of publicly-accessible school website content as of the date of the audit. It does not involve direct contact with schools, review of internal documents, classroom observation, or verification of curriculum implementation beyond what is stated or implied on the website.
2. Probabilistic Results: Scores and assessments are probabilistic and reflect the AI's best interpretation of available text and site structure. They are not infallible and may miss nuance, context, or recent changes not yet reflected online.
3. Subjectivity of Classical Education: "Classical Education" encompasses a range of traditions and interpretations (e.g., Dorothy Sayers' trivium model, Classical Christian Education, Great Books programs, etc.). The Humanitas Institute Audit of the Six Elements of Classical Education uses a broad, consensus-based framework derived from prominent classical education organizations and thought leaders. Reasonable people may disagree on weighting or inclusion of specific criteria.
4. No Official Endorsement or Certification: Results do not constitute official endorsement, accreditation, or certification by any classical education organization. They are provided for informational and research purposes only.
5. Potential for Error: Websites may be incomplete, poorly worded, or temporarily inaccurate. Conversely, sophisticated marketing language may create false positives. Human review by parents, educators, or classical education experts is strongly recommended before drawing final conclusions about any school.
6. Data Privacy and Ethics: Only publicly available information was analyzed. No attempts were made to access password-protected areas or collect personal data.
7. No Liability: The authors, developers, and distributors of this audit assume no liability for decisions made on the basis of these results. Users are solely responsible for their own due diligence.
