Artificial Intelligence Disclaimer

This audit was performed using artificial intelligence tools to evaluate the presence and strength of classical education principles on school websites. Results are automated, probabilistic in nature, and should be considered indicative rather than definitive. See the full disclaimer in the Appendix more details.

Overall Classification: CLASSICALClassicality Audit: Bethel Classical Academy

Executive Summary - Overall classification: CLASSICAL - School website: <https://bethelclassical.org> - Top findings: - Strong, explicit Christ-centered telos and frequent invocation of truth, goodness, and beauty; biblical worldview prominently stated (e.g., “glorify God,” “God’s Truth,” Scripture citations). - Robust curriculum statements on the Trivium, Latin, logic, rhetoric, Western Canon, and integrated studies; “complete literary works instead of textbooks” noted. - Pedagogy shows discussion-based classes, logic and debate, and rhetorical formation; while “Socratic,” “scholé,” and “chanting” are not explicitly named, the practices are directionally aligned. - Faculty framed as Christian exemplars who “live out their faith and walk with Christ daily”. - Parent formation and community life are unusually strong (Parent Resources with Perrin videos, parent workshops, tours, information meetings). - Notes on liturgy: Evidence of communal worship and sacred music through a “Christmas Service” and a “Spring concert,” with a dedicated Spiritual Life page emphasizing biblical literacy; daily chapel/liturgy practices are not explicitly listed.

Method and scoring framework - The audit uses the Positive/Negative Keyword Indicators from the Six Essential Elements of a Classical School lexicon as the scoring framework, with mandatory keyword matching in each category (e.g., truth, goodness, beauty, virtue, theology, Socratic, scholé, wonder, chanting, project-based, experiential learning). - For each category: (1) keywords found on the school site are listed; (2) they are compared to the lexicon’s positive/negative indicators; (3) positive vs negative hits are quantified; (4) a rating is assigned.

CATEGORY 1: RELIGIOUS AND METAPHYSICAL FOUNDATIONS 1) Keywords and phrases found on the school’s site - “Time-tested method ... centered on truth, goodness, and beauty” (transcendentals) - “A classical and Christian education ... in the service of God”; “worship God with our minds”; “Western Canon engaged from a biblical worldview” - Scripture-anchored formation (Proverbs, 2 Peter); “God’s Truth”; explicit moral formation and stewardship language - Spiritual Life: “biblically literate” - Communal/liturgical life evidence: “Christmas Service,” sacred music through concerts 2) Comparison to Six Elements lexicon - Positive matches: truth, goodness, beauty; virtue; wisdom; moral order; theology/Scripture; Christian worldview; reverence; sacred music/communal worship; formation of the soul; pursuit of wisdom (all listed as positive signals). - Negative signals (e.g., values-neutral, moral relativism, secular humanism) not observed on-site. 3) Quantification - Positive hits: +12 (truth, goodness, beauty, God/glorify God, biblical worldview, Scripture, wisdom, virtue, reverence/sacred music, spiritual formation, communal worship event, stewardship) - Negative hits: -0 - percent_positive: 1.00 - percent_coverage: ~0.83 (strong on transcendental and theological grounding; less explicit on routine chapel/liturgical rhythm) 4) Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 2: SCHOOL PURPOSE AND GOAL 1) Keywords and phrases found - “Raise lifelong learners who live to glorify God” - “Develop virtue” and love of learning; “God’s Truth”; explicit character formation (diligence, self-control, godliness, love) 2) Comparison to lexicon - Positive matches: formation, cultivate virtue and wisdom, pursuit of the true/good/beautiful, telos ordered to God; explicitly non-utilitarian aims (formation over mere information). - Negative signals (e.g., “college and career ready,” “21st-century skills” emphasis) not detected in mission language. 3) Quantification - Positive hits: +10 - Negative hits: -0 - percent_positive: 1.00 - percent_coverage: ~0.90 4) Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 3: SCHOOL CURRICULUM 1) Keywords and phrases found - Trivium (Grammar, Logic, Rhetoric) with grade-band detail; Latin (from grade 1); logic (informal in 7th); debate; advanced rhetoric in upper years; mathematics through calculus; sciences; Western Canon; complete works vs textbooks; integrated across disciplines; chronological history study 2) Comparison to lexicon - Positive matches: liberal arts/Trivium; Latin; logic and rhetoric; Great Books/primary works; integrated/harmony of subjects; chronological history/Western civilization; fine arts. - Negative signals (e.g., “social studies” terminology supplanting “history,” STEM-first framing, project-based dominance) not present in curricular framing. 3) Quantification - Positive hits: +10 - Negative hits: -0 - percent_positive: 1.00 - percent_coverage: ~0.90 (Quadrivium named implicitly via math/music/science but not by name “Quadrivium”) 4) Rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 4: SCHOOL PEDAGOGY OR TEACHING METHODS 1) Keywords and phrases found - “Classes are discussion based ... focus on cause and effect”; debate in 7th; formal logic and advanced rhetoric to communicate clearly and persuasively; students read complete works (seminar-friendly) 2) Comparison to lexicon - Positive matches: discussion/dialectic, debate, rhetoric/oratory; cultivation of love of learning and wonder (“natural curiosity”) aligns with contemplative/restful learning aims, though “scholé” is not explicit. - Explicit markers not found: the terms “Socratic,” “scholé,” “chanting/recitation,” “progymnasmata.” - Negative signals (e.g., experiential-learning dominance, project-based-only, student-directed constructivism) not present. 3) Quantification - Positive hits: +5 (discussion, debate, logic formation, rhetoric, integrated reading of complete texts) - Negative hits: -0 - percent_positive: 1.00 - percent_coverage: ~0.55 (several classical pedagogical signals present; explicit “Socratic/scholé/chanting” terms absent) 4) Rating: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL (pedagogy is clearly moving in the classical direction; explicit classical pedagogical terminology could be strengthened)

CATEGORY 5: SCHOOL FACULTY 1) Keywords and phrases found - “Dedicated and Talented Faculty ... live out their faith and walk with Christ daily ... members of local churches ... believe in the inerrancy of the Bible and that God is Sovereign” 2) Comparison to lexicon - Positive matches: teachers as models of virtue, servant leadership, moral exemplars; faculty as “living curriculum” signals through explicit Christian witness. - Negative signals (e.g., “facilitators,” certification-jargon divorced from classical ends) not used. 3) Quantification - Positive hits: +3 - Negative hits: -0 - percent_positive: 1.00 - percent_coverage: ~0.60 (would be higher with a published “portrait of a teacher” or faculty collegium formation) 4) Rating: CLASSICAL CATEGORY 6: SCHOOL PARENTS AND COMMUNITY 1) Keywords and phrases found - Parent Resources with Christopher Perrin (ParentU) lessons on the nature of classical education; “Retrieving & Renewing Truth, Goodness, and Beauty” for parents - Parent Workshop: Reading; “Moms and Muffins”; regular informational meetings and school tours (open hospitality) - Admissions: family interview, pastor’s reference, explicit assessment of “family support and partnership” with the school’s classical Christian mission 2) Comparison to lexicon - Positive matches: partnership with parents, parent formation (talks/workshops/resources), open campus hospitality/community events. - Negative signals (minimal parent involvement, consumer framing) not found in admissions or community language. 3) Quantification - Positive hits: +5 - Negative hits: -0 - percent_positive: 1.00 - percent_coverage: ~0.70 4) Rating: CLASSICAL Aggregate Assessment - Category ratings: C1 CLASSICAL, C2 CLASSICAL, C3 CLASSICAL, C4 SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL, C5 CLASSICAL, C6 CLASSICAL. - Overall: CLASSICAL. The only partial gap is in explicit pedagogical terminology (Socratic, scholé, chanting/recitation), though discussion, debate, rhetoric formation, and reading of complete works are strong and classically aligned. There is no marketing emphasis on “21st-century skills,” “project-based learning,” or “social studies” terminology that would signal drift per the lexicon’s negative indicators.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE DISCLAIMER

This audit was conducted using artificial intelligence tools (including large language models and automated web-analysis scripts) to evaluate the extent to which school websites reflect or incorporate recognized principles of classical education (e.g., the trivium, emphasis on truth/beauty/goodness, integration of great books, Latin/classical languages, Socratic method, rigorous academics, moral/character formation, etc.).

Important Limitations and Caveats

1. Automated Nature: The analysis relies on AI interpretation of publicly-accessible school website content as of the date of the audit. It does not involve direct contact with schools, review of internal documents, classroom observation, or verification of curriculum implementation beyond what is stated or implied on the website.
2. Probabilistic Results: Scores and assessments are probabilistic and reflect the AI's best interpretation of available text and site structure. They are not infallible and may miss nuance, context, or recent changes not yet reflected online.
3. Subjectivity of Classical Education: "Classical Education" encompasses a range of traditions and interpretations (e.g., Dorothy Sayers' trivium model, Classical Christian Education, Great Books programs, etc.). The Humanitas Institute Audit of the Six Elements of Classical Education uses a broad, consensus-based framework derived from prominent classical education organizations and thought leaders. Reasonable people may disagree on weighting or inclusion of specific criteria.
4. No Official Endorsement or Certification: Results do not constitute official endorsement, accreditation, or certification by any classical education organization. They are provided for informational and research purposes only.
5. Potential for Error: Websites may be incomplete, poorly worded, or temporarily inaccurate. Conversely, sophisticated marketing language may create false positives. Human review by parents, educators, or classical education experts is strongly recommended before drawing final conclusions about any school.
6. Data Privacy and Ethics: Only publicly available information was analyzed. No attempts were made to access password-protected areas or collect personal data.
7. No Liability: The authors, developers, and distributors of this audit assume no liability for decisions made on the basis of these results. Users are solely responsible for their own due diligence.
