Artificial Intelligence Disclaimer

This audit was performed using artificial intelligence tools to evaluate the presence and strength of classical education principles on school websites. Results are automated, probabilistic in nature, and should be considered indicative rather than definitive. See the full disclaimer in the Appendix more details.

Overall Classification: CLASSICAL

Classicality Audit: Hillsdale Academy

Executive Summary - Overall classification: CLASSICAL - Why: The school's public materials repeatedly and explicitly affirm the hallmarks of classical education across all six categories: religious/metaphysical grounding (daily prayer, chapel), purpose and ends (formation in virtue and wisdom over mere college/career prep), curriculum (liberal arts with Latin, logic, rhetoric; primary sources; Great Conversation), pedagogy (teacher-led, Socratic dialogue, memorization/recitation), faculty (teachers as models and mentors), and parents/community (parents as primary educators and genuine partnership). See especially: "objective standards of truth, goodness, and beauty," required Latin, rhetoric and logic in the Upper School, Socratic dialogue and primary sources, daily communal prayer, and weekly chapel services. - School URL audited: <https://academy.hillsdale.edu/>

Note on method and lexicon - This audit applies the Six Essential Elements framework and its Positive/Negative Keyword Indicators for each category, cross-checking school language against that lexicon (e.g., truth, goodness, beauty; theology; liturgy; liberal arts; trivium; great books/Great Conversation; Socratic; scholé; wonder; chanting; project-based/experiential as possible negatives).

CATEGORY 1 — RELIGIOUS AND METAPHYSICAL FOUNDATIONS

1) School keywords found (from public materials)

- "Christian institution," "immemorial teachings and practices of the Christian faith," "religious instruction," "Lord's Prayer," "corporate prayer," "chapel service," "spiritual mentors," "Judeo-Christian heritage," "Maker," "virtue," "wisdom," "truth, goodness, and beauty".

2) Comparison to Six Elements keyword lists

- Positive matches: truth/goodness/beauty; virtue and wisdom; theology/Christian formation; chapel/prayer/liturgy are all direct positives in Religious & Metaphysical Foundations (Transcendental Moral Realism; Grounded in Theology; Liturgical & Communal Practices).
- Negative matches: none observed (no "values-neutral," "moral relativism," "secular humanism," etc.).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Positive hits: 15; Negative hits: 0 → percent_positive ≈ 1.00; percent_coverage ≈ 1.00
- Examples counted: Christian/Christian faith (4), religious instruction (1), Lord's Prayer (1), corporate prayer (1), chapel (1), spiritual mentors (1), Judeo-Christian (1), Maker (1), virtue (1), wisdom (1), truth/goodness/beauty (2).

4) Category rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 2 — SCHOOL PURPOSE AND GOAL

1) School keywords found

- “Education is about more than just preparing for college or getting a good job... about cultivating... virtue and wisdom,” “train the minds and develop the hearts,” “lifelong lovers of learning,” “wonder and curiosity,” “objective standards of truth, goodness, and beauty”.

2) Comparison to Six Elements keyword lists

- Positive matches: cultivation of wisdom and virtue; formation (not just information); pursuit of truth, goodness, beauty (explicit).
- Negative matches: the school explicitly de-centers college/career language, a negative indicator in the lexicon, by saying education is “more than” those aims (no dominant “college and career ready” framing).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Positive hits: 12; Negative hits: 0 → percent_positive ≈ 1.00; percent_coverage ≈ 1.00
- Examples counted: virtue/wisdom (3), formation language (2), truth/goodness/beauty (1), love of learning (1), wonder (1), intellectual humility (1), discern truth from error (1), “more than college/job” (2).

4) Category rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 3 — SCHOOL CURRICULUM

1) School keywords found

- “Traditional, classical liberal arts education,” required “Latin in grades 3–12,” Upper School includes “rhetoric [and] logic,” “Socratic dialogue and primary sources,” “Western tradition is central,” “history, literature, philosophy,” capstone “humanities thesis... entering into the great conversation” with a public defense; strong Fine Arts (music, art, drama), history (not “social studies”).

2) Comparison to Six Elements keyword lists

- Positive matches: liberal arts; trivium (Latin, logic, rhetoric in sequence); Great Books/Great Conversation; Western canon; fine arts; primary sources—all strong positives in Curriculum content (trivium/quadrivium, Great Books, integration/wonder).
- Negative matches: none detected (no “social studies” replacing “history,” no STEM-first framing, no project-based dominance).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Positive hits: 14; Negative hits: 0 → percent_positive ≈ 1.00; percent_coverage ≈ 1.00
- Examples counted: liberal arts (1), Latin (2), logic (1), rhetoric (1), Socratic/primary sources (2), Great Conversation (1), Western tradition/canon (2), history emphasis (1), fine arts/music/art/drama (3).

4) Category rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 4 — SCHOOL PEDAGOGY OR TEACHING METHODS

1) School keywords found

- “Traditional, teacher-led methods of instruction,” “Socratic dialogue,” “public presentation and defense,” “student recitations,” “storehouse of memorized Scripture, poetry, speeches, and drama,” “approach the world with... wonder”.

2) Comparison to Six Elements keyword lists

- Positive matches: Socratic dialogue/dialectic; rhetoric/speech/oratory; memorization/recitation; wonder/restful learning signals (explicit “wonder”).
- Negative matches: none observed (no constructivist, student-driven, project-based dominance language).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Positive hits: 7; Negative hits: 0 → percent_positive ≈ 1.00; percent_coverage ≈ 0.80
- Notes: Strong on Socratic, rhetoric, memorization/recitation, and wonder; explicit “scholé/restfulness” or chanting/singing in lower school not named (though daily recitations and rich memory work are clear).

4) Category rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 5 — SCHOOL FACULTY

1) School keywords found

- “Well□educated and articulate faculty,” faculty as “stewards of the Christian classical tradition,” teachers “model and lead... toward intellectual, moral, and civic virtue,” oversight by Headmaster; leadership and staff clearly identified.

2) Comparison to Six Elements keyword lists

- Positive matches: teachers as models of virtue; mentorship and collegiality; faculty formation in classical pedagogy implied by stewardship language; headmaster leadership as part of coherent faculty culture.
- Negative matches: none observed (no “facilitators/guide on the side” jargon as a dominant frame).

3) Quantitative estimate

- Positive hits: 5; Negative hits: 0 → percent_positive ≈ 1.00; percent_coverage ≈ 0.85
- Examples counted: well□educated faculty (1), teachers model virtue (1), mentorship/stewardship (1), explicit leadership/oversight (1), visible team (1).

4) Category rating: CLASSICAL

CATEGORY 6 — SCHOOL PARENTS AND COMMUNITY

1) School keywords found

- “Parents are the primary educators... [faculty] partner with parents,” “parents play the principal role in spiritual instruction,” daily communal practices (opening ceremony, prayer, chapel) reinforce shared culture; K□1 summer reading requires parents reading aloud (home□school linkage).

2) Comparison to Six Elements keyword lists

- Positive matches: partnership with parents; intentional community and shared formation; home□linked practices (reading aloud).
- Negative matches: none observed; however, explicit parent□education programming (e.g., book clubs, seminars) and “parents welcome any time” language are not surfaced in the current crawl.

3) Quantitative estimate

- Positive hits: 3; Negative hits: 0 → percent_positive ≈ 1.00; percent_coverage ≈ 0.60
- Meets partnership strongly; partial evidence of parent formation via school□directed home reading; lacks explicit “always welcome”/open□campus phrasing in current materials.

4) Category rating: SOMEWHAT CLASSICAL

Aggregate Rating - Overall: CLASSICAL - Rationale: Five of six categories rate CLASSICAL with abundant positive indicators and zero negatives. Parents & Community is strong on partnership but lighter on explicit parent□education programming and open□campus language; nevertheless, overall classicality is unambiguous and robust, with explicit statements about truth, goodness, beauty; a classical liberal arts curriculum with Latin, logic, rhetoric; Socratic pedagogy; and liturgical/communal practices integral to school life.

Key Evidence Highlights (select examples with citations) - Daily communal liturgy: Lord's Prayer and corporate prayer; weekly chapel led by headmaster and chaplain. - Purpose: "more than just preparing for college or getting a good job... cultivating... virtue and wisdom". - Curriculum: required Latin (3–12), rhetoric and logic, primary sources, Great Conversation, Western tradition central, Fine Arts integral, capstone thesis with public defense. - Pedagogy: teacher-led instruction; Socratic dialogue; extensive memorization/recitation; emphasis on wonder. - Faculty: teachers as stewards and models of virtue; visible, named leadership team; headmaster oversight. - Parents/community: "parents are the primary educators... partner with parents," plus school-directed home reading in early grades.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE DISCLAIMER

This audit was conducted using artificial intelligence tools (including large language models and automated web-analysis scripts) to evaluate the extent to which school websites reflect or incorporate recognized principles of classical education (e.g., the trivium, emphasis on truth/beauty/goodness, integration of great books, Latin/classical languages, Socratic method, rigorous academics, moral/character formation, etc.).

Important Limitations and Caveats

1. Automated Nature: The analysis relies on AI interpretation of publicly-accessible school website content as of the date of the audit. It does not involve direct contact with schools, review of internal documents, classroom observation, or verification of curriculum implementation beyond what is stated or implied on the website.
2. Probabilistic Results: Scores and assessments are probabilistic and reflect the AI's best interpretation of available text and site structure. They are not infallible and may miss nuance, context, or recent changes not yet reflected online.
3. Subjectivity of Classical Education: "Classical Education" encompasses a range of traditions and interpretations (e.g., Dorothy Sayers' trivium model, Classical Christian Education, Great Books programs, etc.). The Humanitas Institute Audit of the Six Elements of Classical Education uses a broad, consensus-based framework derived from prominent classical education organizations and thought leaders. Reasonable people may disagree on weighting or inclusion of specific criteria.
4. No Official Endorsement or Certification: Results do not constitute official endorsement, accreditation, or certification by any classical education organization. They are provided for informational and research purposes only.
5. Potential for Error: Websites may be incomplete, poorly worded, or temporarily inaccurate. Conversely, sophisticated marketing language may create false positives. Human review by parents, educators, or classical education experts is strongly recommended before drawing final conclusions about any school.
6. Data Privacy and Ethics: Only publicly available information was analyzed. No attempts were made to access password-protected areas or collect personal data.
7. No Liability: The authors, developers, and distributors of this audit assume no liability for decisions made on the basis of these results. Users are solely responsible for their own due diligence.
